Half-time Executive Director Job Description

Summary

The Chicago Hyde Park Village (CHPV) seeks a half-time Executive Director to coalesce our organization by building operational systems and growing institutional memory that will lead to the long-term sustainability of CHPV. We are a small grassroots organization made up of residents who are creating neighbor-to-neighbor support systems that allow people to “age in place.” A successful candidate will oversee all aspects of our organization through commitment to team spirit and the willingness to collaborate with our highly participatory board of directors and active working committees.

About CHPV

The Chicago Hyde Park Village (CHPV or The Village) is a local community-based 501(c)(3) registered nonprofit organization. Our mission is to help members remain in their homes and engaged in the community as they grow older through education, volunteerism, referrals and services. We began organizing activities in the Hyde Park area in 2011 and formally opened our doors in November 2014.

CHPV is part of a nationwide movement of grassroots efforts to create “age-friendly” communities and organizations to support “aging in place.” The movement began in 2003 in Boston and has expanded to over 200 Villages across the country, with many more in development. The Village to Village Network (<http://www.vtvnetwork.org/>) is a national association of Villages.

CHPV is a local contract-holding partner of the South Side Healthy Aging Resource Experts (SHARE). The SHARE Network was created by University of Chicago Medicine Section on Geriatrics through a U.S. HRSA GWEP federal grant. CHPV benefits financially and programmatically as a SHARE partner.

THE BRUNCH TO REMEMBER! ...October 14

By Nathan Worcester

The name says it all--Chicago Hyde Park Village's "A Brunch to Remember" will not soon be forgotten. We far exceeded our goal by netting over $15,000—thanks, everybody! We also attracted 125 participants, setting a record for a Village fundraiser.

We gathered at the Chicago Lake Shore Hotel on the sunny morning of October 14th. The great view of Lake Michigan was the perfect accompaniment for a delicious brunch complete with omelet and waffle stations. Over mimosas and a seemingly limitless supply of champagne, attendees chatted with friends old and new.

President Gary Worcester set things in motion with a short speech.

Jay Mulberry, legendary Good Neighbor moderator and longtime friend of the Village, outdid himself as master of ceremonies. He reminded us of some Village members' outstanding feats, including the indefatigable Dr. Al Klinger's participation in the 2017 March to Springfield at age 91.

Second City alum Dan Friedrich had the crowd in stitches with a Good Neighbors-themed comedy routine. Jeff Foxworthy (or Hyde Park's own Compass Players, forerunners of Second City) would be proud.

But who's that sitting near Jay and Dan? It's Ryan K. Priest, Director of Community Programs for the University of Chicago's Office of Civic Engagement! Ryan and the Community Programs Accelerator have been a huge help to us, so we we were glad to see them represented. He is pictured here with Rita McCarthy, the Organizer for this special event.

And who else? Fifth Ward Alderman Leslie Hairston and Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle! Alderman Hairston and President Preckwinkle (sounds natural, doesn't it?) both got up and spoke.

Dan proved himself a natural-born auctioneer at the successful live auction. The live auction and silent auction included 38 items, ranging from gourmet dinners to gift certificates to many local stores to a Gourmet Italian Surprise from Eataly Chicago. A special thanks to all the local businesses that donated: Argentinian Bakery, Binny's Beverage Depot, Chicago Lake Shore Café, Fabiana's Bakery, Fairgrass, Hyde Park Produce, Bonjour Café Bakery, La Petite Folie, Medici on 57th, Piccolo

Mondo, Pizza Capri, the Promontory, The Sit Down Cafe & Sushi Bar, and Snail Thai Cuisine. And one last shout-out to the Lake Shore Hotel for helping host a wonderful event.

The Chicago Aging Collaborative Report:

A Livable Chicago for All Ages, Part II

The Chicago Aging Collaborative held its second public event on October 4, 2018, at Rush Medical Center. The program featured Bob Blancato who has held leadership positions in the American Society on Aging, the National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services, the National Council on Aging and directed the 1995 White House Conference on Aging, and Bill Benson, who has worked in senior positions at the U.S. Administration on Aging, the California Department of Aging and as a major consultant on critical issues on public health and aging and to the CDC Healthy Aging Program.

As individuals intimately involved with the aging issues on the national level, they talked about the general federal landscape and then suggested measures for effective efforts on the local level. Both praised our intergenerational approach to “A Livable Chicago for All Ages,” noting that in building an aging infrastructure, we have essentially “silo-ize” aging, which in the end reinforces “ageism.” It is also important to advocate strongly for our concerns and issues, and of course, to vote, to make ourselves a part of the discussion on infrastructure, economic development and reducing medical expenses.

Bob Blancato advised building economic alliances around issues politicians care about such as monetary issues and elder abuse; that we can try to fit ourselves into existing programs and develop demonstration projects. Since Chicago lacks focus on the aging population, we should work to develop our issues into intergenerational issues and get on the agenda. We can also work to partner with the media, become a resource for political candidates and build relationships with big donors. By Susan Alitto
